

Institution	City	State	Site contact	Email	Peds-GI related opportunities	Types of peds GI patients	Opportunities for research	Additional information	Date information updated/reviewed
Baylor College of Medicine/Texas Children's Hospital	Houston	TX	Mariella Self	mmself@texaschildrens.org	Inpatient C/L and outpatient intervention addressing the full range of GI presenting problems	full range - feeding, elimination, IBD, FGIDs, etc.	option for a research rotation (10-30%) in a multi-D GI lab with NIH funded studies related to kids with FGIDs	fellowship can include year-long GI experience, or 6 months experience; additional peds psych experiences are a part of the fellowship as well; see brochure	11/8/21
Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC)	Orange	California	Marni Nagel	mnagel@choc.org	- Not specific to GI, but opportunities to see peds GI patients through C/L service, outpatient medical clinic, and outpatient psychotherapy with patients with GI conditions - GI-specific multidisciplinary rounds - Program development - Opportunities for providing supervision	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD, feeding disorders	Encouraged, but on your own time
Children's Mercy	Kansas City	Missouri	Jennifer Schurman	jschurman@cmh.edu	- Full time fellowship in peds GI outpatient clinic - GI-relevant didactics, including a classroom and clinical orientation to biofeedback; opportunities to work toward certification in biofeedback may also be available upon request - Weekly GI multidisciplinary rounds - Program development	FGIDs, IBD	Flexible; at least .5-1 day per week; opportunities for grant writing	Research opportunities vary by year, but currently include: IBD adherence projects, EMA and precision medicine in FGIDs, community-based QI projects focused on improving FGID outcomes in primary care
Hurley Children's Hospital at Hurley Medical Center	Flint	Michigan	Crystal Cederna-Meko	codern1@hurleymc.com	- Inpatient C/L, IPC, and outpatient psychotherapy for GI conditions	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD, feeding disorders	Encouraged, but on your own time	This fellowship is not for someone interested in specializing in GI only, but includes coverage of GI issues across most areas of practice. A pediatric psychologist may work within IPC, inpatient, psychotherapy, GI related issues are a common presenting problem during the course of the 2 year fellowship.
Johns Hopkins	Baltimore	Maryland	Carisa Parrish; Elizabeth Reynolds	cparris5@jhmi.edu; ereynol9@jhmi.edu	- Fellow rotation includes consultation in an multidisciplinary chronic constipation clinic for youth as well as outpatient cases with a wide variety of GI diagnoses - GI-specific didactics - Program development	FGIDs, constipation/encopresis, IBD, feeding disorders, EE, short bowel	Encouraged, but on your own time	Current research projects include outcomes associated with involvement in a interdisciplinary chronic constipation clinic	11/16/2021
Marcus Autism Center	Atlanta	Georgia	William Sharp	william.sharp@choa.org	- Not specific to GI, but offers experiences with feeding disorders	Feeding disorders	5 hrs/week; opportunities for grant writing
Mt. Washington Pediatric Hospital	Baltimore	Maryland	Eli Getzoff	egetzoff@mwph.org	- Postdocs may participate full time in Feeding Day Treatment Program to provide intervention to children with ARFID	FGIDs, IBD, feeding disorders, ARFID	No	We offer opportunities for full-time post-docs in the Pediatric Feeding Program as well as the Weigh Smart Program
Nationwide Children's Hospital	Columbus	Ohio	Ashley Kroon Van Diest for Comprehensive GI Track	ashley.kroonvandiast@nationwidechildrens.org	-Comprehensive GI training in outpatient, inpatient C/L and integrated medical clinic settings - GI and peds psych didactics - Opportunities for program development and research	FGIDs (including constipation, rumination), IBD, EoE, Short Bowel Syndrome, Celiac Disease, Liver Conditions/Transplant, Feeding Disorders	QI related research project, other opportunities based on interest
Nemours/A.I. duPont Hospital for Children	Wilmington	Delaware	Cheyenne Hughes-Reid	chughes@nemours.org	- Peds GI rotation 6 hrs/week for 12 months in outpatient peds GI clinic - GI-relevant didactics (didactics include CBT and relaxation) - GI-specific multidisciplinary rounds; opportunities for providing supervision - Program development	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD	Encouraged, but on your own time	Current research projects include program evaluation of integrated clinic visits and group treatment for encopresis
Oregon Health & Science University - Doernbecher Children's Hospital, CDRC	Portland	Oregon	Kurt A. Freeman	freemaku@ohsu.edu	Integrated Primary Care/Behavioral Pediatrics	encopresis, constipation, stool withholding, and toileting difficulties, among other behavioral pediatric presentations	Devoted research time and grant writing opportunities	https://www.ohsu.edu/ehd/psychology-fellowship/psychology-postdoctoral-residency-program	11/11/2021

Institution	City	State	Site contact	Email	Peds-GI related opportunities	Types of peds GI patients	Opportunities for research	Additional information	Date information updated/reviewed
Oregon Health & Science University - Doernbecher Children's Hospital, Depts Ped Psych & GI	Portland	Oregon	Jacklyn E. Stellway	stellway@ohsu.edu	Inpatient C/L and outpatient intervention addressing a range of GI presenting problems. - GI-specific didactics - GI-specific multidisciplinary rounds - Program development	IBD, DGBI/FGID, celiac	Yes - research opportunities per fellow's interest. current projects include ped to adult transition; integrated GI-psych clinic for complex DGBIs; IBD-related distress; psychosocial screening	https://postdoctoral-ohsu.icims.com/jobs/12281/postdoctoral-scholar/job?mode=view&mobile=false&width=755&height=500&bg=white&needsRedirect=false&jan1offset=-480&jun1offset=-420	11/11/21
University of Michigan/CS Mott Children's Hospital	Ann Arbor	Michigan	Jennifer Butcher	jennbutc@med.umich.edu	- Several different tracks (e.g., general ped psych, integrated behavioral health, C/L, and soon pain) which all have an element of GI experience - Flexible in terms of meeting training needs - GI-relevant didactics - GI-specific multidisciplinary rounds - Opportunities for providing supervision - Program development	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD, feeding disorders, liver transplant	Devoted research time
Children's Hospital of Philadelphia	Philadelphia	Pennsylvania	Betsy Turner	turnere1@chop.edu	Outpatient consultation, assessment, and intervention with a range of GI presentations - GI-specific and Psychiatry didactics - opportunities to participate in multidisciplinary clinics, opportunities to participate in group interventions and support groups, opportunities for umbrella supervision, opportunities to participate in Comfort Ability Program - QI/Program Development opportunities	Chronic GI conditions (IBD, Celiac disease), FGIDs (including rumination), EOE, constipation	30-40% devoted program development/QI projects		11/24/21
University of Rochester Medical Center - Golisano Children's Hospital	Rochester	New York	Linda Alpert-Gillis, Ph.D.	Linda_Alperthillis@urmc.rochester.edu	- The fellowship is customized based on the interests of each fellow - Several different ped psych training opportunities are available including Peds GI - Opportunities for providing supervision - Program development - Will be recruiting for diverse Peds Psych faculty position over the next 5 years	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD, etc.	Devoted research time	Our program follows the APPIC guidelines, and is accepting applications through APPA CAS. Visit our "How to Apply" page on our website for more information: https://www.urmc.rochester.edu/psychiatry/education/psychology-internship-and-fellowship/postdoctoral-fellowship.aspx	Applications preferred by Dec 15th but will accept applications through Dec 31st
Boston Children's Hospital	Boston	Massachusetts	Julie Snyder, Psy.D.	julie.snyder@childrens.harvard.edu	Full-time GI psychology fellowship. Outpatient rotations include multidisciplinary clinics (Functional Abdominal Pain Clinic, Growth & Nutrition program, ARFID) and opportunities to see patients with various GI related conditions within the general GI Psychology Service	FGIDs, encopresis, IBD, ARFID, feeding disorders, motility disorders	Devoted research time: fellow able to choose a project to work on either with gastroenterology faculty or GI psychologists (or both)	We follow APPIC guidelines, including UND date	